

Benjamin Banneker

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdbanneker.htm>

Benjamin's grandmother was saved from death	for a couple of years at a Quaker school.
His grandmother was an	Banneker was able to make a clock out of wood.
His father registered his farm	was a used Bible.
Banneker attended school	indentured servant in Maryland.
After studying a pocket watch	after borrowing a telescope from a friend.
The first book Banneker bought	because she was able to read.
Benjamin inherited from his grandfather	aid farmers in their planting and harvesting.
He became interested in astronomy	the position of the sun, moon, and planets.
Banneker wrote an almanac to	by a fire on the day he was buried.
An ephemeris is a chart showing	a large estate in Ireland.
He appealed to Thomas Jefferson	in his name and also in Benjamin's name.
His wooden clock was destroyed	for equal treatment for African-Americans.