

Increase Mather

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdmath.htm>

Increase Mather at first favored	the girls accused them of bewitching them.
He changed his mind about the trials	to be hanged.
Mather's parents	but they hanged him anyway.
He entered Harvard when	of rumor and false accusation.
Mather later became president	of Harvard.
He spent four years in England	with some girls playing a fortune-telling game.
The trouble in New England started	decided they were bewitched.
When the girls became ill, the physician	advocating for the colony.
People were arrested when	joined other Puritans in coming to America.
Bridget Bishop was the first person	when his wife was accused of witchcraft.
George Burroughs recited the Lord's Prayer	he was twelve years old.
The events in Salem show the effect	the witch trials.